I hope to be elected to continue serving on GGPNC's Board for the same reasons I've been engaged in community work since Boy Scouts. Having moved to my wife's home here when we married three years ago, where we together have three generations of roots going back over 80 years, I've drawn on experience from my 'home town' of Agoura, where I'd served on City Advisory Committees after holding terms as Vice President of the Chamber of Commerce. I've helped to build teamwork between community groups and individual stakeholders; elected and appointed officials; professional staff and volunteers.

After joining GGPNC's Planning, Zoning, and Historic Preservation Committee, and the Neighborhood Improvement/Culture and Events Committees, I was appointed to a District B's vacant seat on the Board, with goals highlighting the intersection of many facets, such as Priorities, Participation, Planning, Pathways, Parks, Parking, Preservation.

Please, help me to continue those efforts.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE ABOVE STATEMENTS ARE TRUE AND CORRECT:
