

Luisa Nubaravacharyan
GGPNC Candidate Statement for At Large Position

My family immigrated to the United States in 1988. I was almost four. My parents made sure I grew up appreciating and valuing my heritage and at the same time accepting and assimilating with a new life that was foreign to us. They also made sure that I would get a good education and have a great career. We adapted very well to this positive change. I grew up accepting, respecting and understanding everything that was beyond my tradition. I have lived in the Los Feliz community since I came to America.

I received a BA in English Literature from the California State University Los Angeles in 2006. Thereafter, I became an Operations Supervisor for Bank of America where I worked with prominent cliental. In 2007, I started working for Farmers Insurance for the Executive VP and General Counsel in Corporate Legal. In 2008, I transitioned over to the Legislative and Regulatory Affairs Department, where I work with Department of Insurance in various states and Government Affairs Representatives.

I am seeking a board member position within the GGPNC for various reasons. First and foremost, I am an Armenian American who wishes to represent a sector of the community that has been underrepresented thus far. My very own personal goals resonate well with those of the GGPNC—I too wish to make a difference in the community and make certain improvements to find fitting solutions to flaws that impede this dynamic and diverse community of ours. As a member, I will bridge the gap between the Armenian American Community of Los Feliz and the GGPNC because there exists a cultural barrier that needs to be traversed in order for improvements to come into effect. Additionally, I want to educate the Armenian American community stakeholders and instill in them a will and determination to become more involved with community affairs. Furthermore, I believe myself to be highly qualified for the position. I am also currently an active member of the Armenian American Chamber of Commerce Little Armenia-Chapter and possess great networking skills that will indubitably facilitate the achievement of my endeavors as a member of the GGPNC.

I am grateful for this opportunity, and if appointed, I will work diligently to serve our community.
